To one of my best friends
 who!! just weird just each know
 I wish other
 seems a year
 than a lot
 And that to
 of our first
 in G.A.'s
 hard to
 then pass
 at week
 I caught up

You and became a Teen-with-a-Skeper.
 It doesn't seem possible
 that you and I have worked together and shared over
 our shared work for the past few years.
 Really, I don't think I could have done it without your help. I want to wish you luck
 in the future.

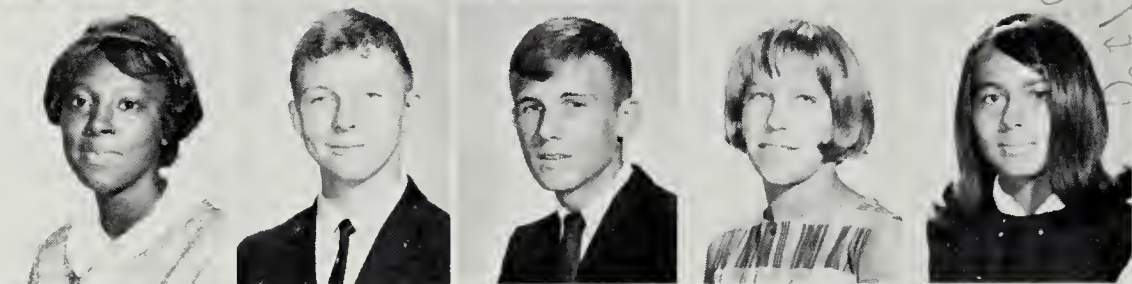

Love, Ellen

Candid

Where the Action is . . .

I've got the answer -- now to figure out how I got it . . .

The strain is almost too much . . .

Hey! -- I spotted that packet of gum wrappers first!

This is the position I actually find most beneficial for studying . . .

Turn the page to find the fascinating subject this student is pursuing . . .

One wonder of it all . . .

Your make-up could use a little touching-up too . . .

Professor Wierdo, without the aid of Count Kook, adds just a "touch" of tenderness . . .

. . . but I'll need a size larger to accomodate school lunches and slumber parties this year.

The music goes 'round and 'round and comes out . . . here?

Now for my afternoon nap . . .

We seem to have a mix-up here . . .

Would you believe . . . just 50 minutes?

My poem for today is entitled . . . "My Double Life as a Faculty Basketball Star."

Bright lights on the Tree of Knowledge.

Holiday Seasons at Robert Frost

Acknowledgements

Only deep affection and gratitude can be expressed to those who so sincerely devoted their time, effort and enthusiasm in compiling this book. Staff members Teresa Lea, Patti Briner, Susan Rogers, Marianne Burton, Jim Hiett, Alyce Katayama, Karen Robinson, Esther Tepper, Carol Post, Ed Beadle, Debbie Tribett, Carol Dodd, Harriet Massey, and Mindy Morrow were assisted by faculty members Miss Joan Cole, Mrs. Karen Hamilton, and Mrs. Grace Summers. Each in his own way contributed a bit of himself. It is our fervent hope that this memory book will happily recall "a passing glimpse" of memorable days at Robert Frost.
